TERRELL

Terrell, Texas, Feb. 20.—Austin Ware, a prosperous farmer, living 6 1/2 miles west of the city was killed on the 2nd inst., while visiting on an adjoining farm by D. Mills another colored farmer. Domestic trouble is said to have caused the killing. Ware was shot through the heart with a .45 caliber pistol, killing him instantly. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his loss. He was 55 years of age.

Sunday, the 2nd inst., was a great day for New Hope Baptist church as it marked the close of a three week rally contest between 8 young ladies and the little boys and girls. Mrs. Mary Elise was the fortunate lady contestant, having raised more money and was presented with a handsome leather bound Bible. The little girls won over the boys and were the bers total 24. The Ministerial Alliance of the city is progressing nicely. The following composed the newly elected officers for 1919: Rev. L. A. Weaver, president; Rev. J. E. Rains, vice-president; Rev. J. G. Collins, secretary; Rev. J. S. Lyon, treasurer; Rev. W. H. Johnson, assistant secretary; Rev. D. A. Butler, critic; Rev. J. S. Harris, chaplain; other members are Revs. A. G. Wyner, W. O. Boyd and A. H. Bell.

Dr. C. L. Mellow, our skillful surgeon assisted by Dr. Shepherd of Marshall and other local physicians performed two major operations a few days ago. Mrs. Susie Cummings and Mrs. Robert Jackson were the patients, each are doing fine to date.

Madam Anita Patti Brown gave one of her charming recitals to a crowded house last Wednesday night at St. James A. M. E. church.

The High School literary club gave an interesting entertainment at St. James A. M. E. church last week in honor of Lincoln's birthday.

Rev. I. W. Sparks and family have moved to Chisolem in Rockwall County.

Mrs. Reulah Quick en route to Ft. Worth spent a few hours with her niece, Mrs. D. K. Wheeler last Sunday.

The Dallas Express is growing in Terrell, our weekly issue has reached one hundred readers, let us make it 125 in March.

TAYLOR.

Taylor, Texas, Feb. 20.—This section was visited by a heavy rainfall Monday which lasted several hours. Farmers are considerably behind with their work on account of unusually wet winter. Some gardening is being done.

The threatening weather interfered with church worship Sunday at the various churches.

Rev. G. W. Anderson, pastor of Allen Chapel A. M. E. church is conducting a rally for the erection of a parsonage. Rev. Anderson is visiting Mrs. Anderson at Waco, this week and is all smiles over the fact that he is styled as "Grandpa" now.

The Parent-Teachers' club met Friday afternoon at the school building. The program composed a solo by Miss Elgin and recitation by Mrs. T. M. Shadowna interspersed by general discussion. Much interest is being manifested and many persons are readily taking up the great work.

Rev. J. A. McPherson of Waco was in the city during the week and delivered an interesting lecture on "The Question of Momentous Concern," at Mt. Aria Baptist church.

Mrs. Edith Jones and children of Lorena left Saturday for their home after a two weeks visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Oliver.

The deaths of Mrs. Minnie Johnson and Miss Daisy Thoms occurred the 12th inst., with only a short space of time intervening. Both were members of Mt. Calvary Baptist church. The former was shipped to Elgin for burial and the latter to Lorena. Rev. T. H. Greene, Supt. of the Orphanage at Bryan, passed through en route to LaGrange. Mrs. Matt Brown has joined the list of Express readers.

Rev. W. B. Brawley visited Rice's Crossing, Sunday. Mrs. M. C. May, our popular undertaker, had business at Thrall, Sunday.

OAK CLIFF.

Oak Cliff, Sta. A. Dallas, Texas, Feb. 20.—Shiloh Baptist church with her strong lead, Rev. S. G. Guster is doing a commendable work. The church has planned to give to the Christian education $240.00. Sunday school is still progressing with our present Supt. H. McKinney. At 11 a. m. Rev. Battles of Ennis, Texas, filled the pulpit with a strong message. At 4:30 the B. Y. P. U. rendered a wonderful program. At 8:30 the pastor preached a noble sermon from 2 Peter, 2:1, subject, "Infamous ingratitude." Everybody's hearts were made to rejoice. Mr. and Mrs. Raily presented to the church a bouquet of beautiful flowers. Many cheers were given. Proceeds for the day $35.11.
